

Gary Scharf Helping Hand Award

In Honor of Gary Scharf for his Commitment and Service to Nebraska FFA and Agricultural Education

Presented by the Nebraska FFA Foundation

Established in 2009, this award recognizes a Nebraska agriculture instructor/FFA advisor for what he/she has done in “helping others,” specifically in the school and community, outside of agricultural education and FFA. The recipient of this award is one who exemplifies the commitment, self-sacrifice, and genuine kindness that defined Gary Scharf’s life.

Information about the Award:

- One Nebraska agriculture instructor/FFA advisor will be recognized annually with a plaque and $500 cash award.
- Anyone can make the nomination – students, fellow teachers, school officials, parents and/or others in the community.
- The recipient will be announced and recognized at the Thursday evening session, during the Nebraska State FFA Convention.
- Submit only one completed application for nominee. Supplemental pages can be attached, but only as supporting letters for the original application form.

All Applications Must Be Postmarked by March 1st

Applications should be returned to:
Nebraska FFA Foundation
PO Box 94942
Lincoln, NE 68509-4942

Application Submitted by: _____ Name

Profession/Relationship to Nominee (Student, Teacher, Businessperson, etc.)

Telephone #: _____ E-mail: _____

Name of Agriculture Instructor/FFA Advisor Being Nominated:
_____

School and/or Chapter: _____

