

English Learners Newsletter

August 2020

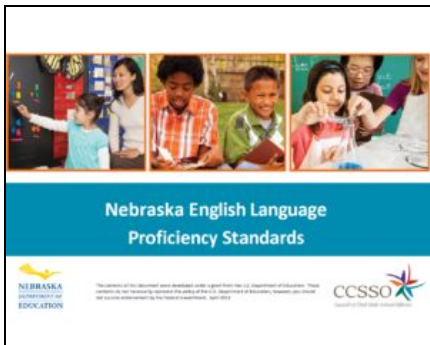

Welcome to the beginning of the 2020-2021 school year!

Each month we will provide a few resources to support teachers and administrators working with multilingual students.

Everything ELPA21

ELP Standards - English Language Proficiency Standards

NDE ELPA 21 Assessment

- Screener - the ELPA21 Dynamic Screener is a K-12 online testing tool for determining if students are English Learners (ELs). This tool is available for all Nebraska school districts.
- Summative - the ELPA21 Summative Assessment is a K-12 online testing tool that measures the NE ELP Standards and provides growth and achievement data of the ELs. This is the assessment tool used by all Nebraska school districts.

ELPA 21 Reports

The ELPA 21 reports summarize individual student performance as well as grade level, school, district, and state performance in each language domain. Please see the linked directions to access these reports.

NDE Resources

NDE has produced a number of learning modules for teachers and administrators. These modules can be used with individual and small groups of teachers and administrators to further develop their professional learning about multilingual students.

- LIEP \(Language Instruction Educational Program\) Learning Module

Additional Resources

TransACT Parent Notices provides Nebraska schools access to required parent notification letters in English and multiple other languages. This resource helps school districts meet the ESSA Parent and Family Engagement requirements. www.transact.com.

UNL ICMEE Learning Packets are free resources for EL students who may be learning remotely. Packets of learning materials are organized by grade and language levels. These packets can be printed so students can work on them without the need for technology/internet services.
